

Lausanne Canada Evening with Lindsay Brown

Sept. 17, 2009

Topic: “Fresh Voices, New Faces: Lausanne and the New Realities of the Global Church”

Background: “Lausanne is convening a historic International Congress to be held in Cape Town, South Africa, October 2010. The first congress was in 1974 (Lausanne, Switzerland) and the second in 1987 (Manila, Philippines). This ‘once in a generation’ gathering of 4,000 Christian leaders from over 200 countries will provide unique opportunities to collectively address critical issues facing the global church. The Cape Town Congress is a collaborative event between Lausanne (LCWE) and the World Evangelical Alliance (WEA).”

Speaker: Lindsay Brown has been the International Director of the Lausanne movement since 2006, and a key figure in the preparation of Cape Town 2010. A native of Wales and former General Secretary of the International Fellowship of Evangelical Students (IFES) representing over 400,000 students around the world, he is respected throughout the global Christian community for his exceptional vision and depth of understanding of global trends.

Location: Knox Presbyterian Church Toronto
630 Spadina Ave. (at Harbord)
www.knoxtoronto.org/directions/index.html

Date: Thursday, Sept. 17th, 2009

Time: 7:30 – 8:45 pm (Q&A and refreshments to follow)

Cost: Free. There will be opportunity to help support the work of Lausanne Canada.

For More Information:

- About Lausanne International: www.lausanne.org
- About Cape Town 2010: www.lausanne.org/cape-town-2010
- About Lausanne Canada: www.lausanne.org/region-north-america/canada.html
- Questions? Contact John Franklin (Chair of Lausanne Canada) at jfranklin@rogers.com or 416-421-8745